

Sarah Jagger - Bio

Sarah Jagger is a beauty expert on ITV's Lorraine, and is one of the shows 'Beauty Belles' on ITV's This Morning, where she regularly offers makeup and beauty advice.

Sarah's background is extensive. She is a fashion makeup artist, beauty expert and author of Magic Make-up Tips and Techniques, which contains her secrets to long-lasting, achievable beauty and comes with a DVD containing fifty 'one minute beauty tips', making a flawless complexion or dramatic eye make-up achievable in record time.

When Sarah isn't behind the camera, she can be found 'dishing the dirt' on the latest beauty products on TV, Radio, the Internet and in magazines. Sarah's a regular guest on British Breakfast Television Live with...on Channel 5 and as a make-up expert for Boots, Beautyzone TV and 'Mummy Makeover'.

Sarah demonstrates make-up application in online videos. She is also a regular guest speaker at The Vitality Show and a beauty spokesperson at BBC London.

Sarah has been a makeup artist on countless advertising and editorial shoots working with designers including Vivienne Westwood, Allegra Hicks, Warehouse, French Connection and Amanda Wakely. Television commercials include clients such as Disney, Mtv, Tesco's and Kelloggs.

As a popular choice for the music industry and the red carpet Sarah has worked with stars like Mischa Barton, Juliette Lewis, Reese Witherspoon, Maggie Smith, Jack Osbourne, Ewan Mcgreggor, The Frattelis, Just Jack, Frank Lampard, Roger Federer and Venus Williams to name but a few.

Jagger writes for many style and beauty glossy magazines and is incredibly adept at making celebrities glitter and mere mortals look fantastic, on and off the red carpet.
