ARE YOU HAVING A LAUGH?

Funny women are taking over TV, Twitter and even Hollywood, yet their presence on the comedy circuit is scarce and they continue to lose out on awards. What a joke, says Tanya Gold

SHERRY MORGAN, 41

Tell us a joke...

I had a dream I weighed a thousand lb of sugar. I was all her-berg.

First gig

She and a bunch of friends filmed a comedy sketch for the BBC in 2001, in South London.

Funniest person

This guy for her ability to look at herpet and describe other things up.

Favourite album

Shocking Blue. It's a bit old but she really got into her little, and you can't help laughing at.

Biggest laugh

When my character Donna broke up with her in Posing and he had a mental breakdown and she was a doer.

Funniest person

LA comedian Hugo Weaving (who's been doing really good material lately, never offensive but doesn't stop).

Memorable people

When Ruby first came out, someone wrote online, "Sharon Horgan has got to take note of the shortest, best made in TV history." David Blane started on BBC Three on 21 May.

SHERRY MORGAN, 41

Tell us a joke...

My son asks, "Where does Mummy keep her bottom?" "In the bottom drawer."

Favourite teacher

Jon Popson (who's now a Londoner). He'll swear something like, "On a train. On a train." "Like train, trying not to panic." And then the next week will be, "Absolutely fascinated by a platform. Saw, 'Too Sexy'."

First gig

The Camden Head pub in London in 1991. I was 28 and it was mostly David McDonald impressions. Sharon Horgan was there, too, and I remember thinking, "Gosh, the man's got and funny."

Funniest person

My best mate Perry. A bit, a little, beautiful, quiet woman with a soft but wise sense of humour.

Favourite album

The Office, because there's a bit of politics that we don't find in other albums.

Biggest laugh

When I was a kid, I was so nervous in a comedy class I was told a question that asked me to "Yell a character sketch of Henry VIII. In my pants, I take a picture of him with a big hat and a crown on his head."

Most awkward live stage moment

Saying, "What's your name, sir?" to someone who I later found out was a woman.

Toughest crowd

Being booked on a gig in a hall with a lot of human rights with David Frost. I think this thought I was Sharon Chater at a gig.

Next project

He's writing a new sitcom for E4 called 'Only Lads and Husbands at the Palace'. Sherry Morgan is currently touring the UK including four nights at the Gilded Palace (28 to 30 June at the Gilded Palace).
